

News of the Day.

Philip H. Morgan, of Louisiana, who was appointed a judge of the new International Tribunal established in Egypt for the adjudication of civil and criminal matters affecting foreigners in that country, has arrived in that country, and is presented to Pasha Cherif, who will, according to custom, present him to the Khedive, by whom his formal appointment is to be conferred upon the nomination of our Government. A correspondent writes: "I am very glad to find him (Judge Morgan) not only familiar with French, but with a code of laws similar to those of Egypt. His command of French will also aid much to his influence with the natives. The nomination promises to be in every way satisfactory."

Captain Geare, of the bark Amphitrite, from Bristol, reports June 26, in latitude 44° 39' North, longitude 43° West, met the twenty-two schooner rigger whale boat New Bedford, twenty-two days out, with Mr. and Mrs. Grapo on board, here to add the two voyagers boarded the Amphitrite; they remained to dinner and expressed themselves well satisfied with their voyage to Europe, and stated that they had enjoyed good health. After parting, Captain Geare provided them with water, water and a few small necessities. The New Bedford departed at last northeast, and the ship's company cheered from three cheers and wished them good-bye.

At a meeting of the National Cotton Exchange at the White Sulphur Springs, yesterday, a motion to invite General Joseph E. Johnston and John A. Early and Hon. Ben. Hill, of Georgia, to privileged seats, met with decided opposition, but after some discussion it was adopted, with only two votes in the negative. No political significance attaches to the decision. A similar courtesy was subsequently extended to Col. Freese, the Persian Minister, Hon. John H. Reagan, of Texas, and ex-Mayor Wickham, of New York.

The steamer City of Lawrence made an excursion yesterday from Norfolk and New London, Conn., to Newport, R. I. Rows from the hotel and the restaurant on board the boat and four officers went on board the boat to arrest them, when they were attacked by the mob and all were beaten with a club. The boat left with the rowdies on board.

In the United States Court at Springfield, Mass., yesterday, the final decree of foreclosure of the mortgage of the Farmers' Loan and Trust Company, and other claimants, is ordered to take place at Alexandria. The day is not yet fixed.

In regard to a rumor that Judge Hilton had assembled his orders excluding Hebrews from the Grand Union Hotel, that gentleman says emphatically that they remain unchanged, and that he is determined that they shall continue to be in force.

The Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Railroad Company announce that they will sell one hundred and twenty-five thousand tons of coal at auction in New York on Wednesday, July 1st.

COMMERCIAL.

ALEXANDRIA MARKET, July 19.—The market for flour is quiet, the supply being very light, and all of the wheat is early. Several lots of flour are daily expected, and buyers and sellers are holding out in anticipation of its arrival. Wheat is less active, the decline in New York and Baltimore affecting the market here rather unfavorably. The offerings reached nearly 600 bushels, but buyers were less inclined to operate until at prices considerably below those of yesterday, and sellers were compelled to make concessions; nearly all the samples were of red, and before the close of the day all were taken at prices ranging from 104½ to 105, the latter for prime hard wheat; the sales brought 154. Corn showed a decline, the futures brought 64½, 73½ for mixed and white; the offerings reached 1200 bushels, and all sold. Rye brought 68½ to 69, with light offerings. Small sales of Oats at 60½.
